

Missouri Compassion and Lindsay Lane Baptist Church Present
a one-day capacity-building, sustainability workshop that will EMPOWER you with knowledge and resources!

The presenter: Bob Vickers

Bob is nationally known for his life's work in relationship-building, grantwriting, and fund development material and skills. Author of more than 40 books/training manuals, he has taught thousands of churches and nonprofits to access resources including religious groups (Promise Keepers, YFC, Campus Crusade, etc.) and secular nonprofit organizations. He has been a part of the Charitable Choice and Faith-Based/Community Initiatives for The White House, DOL, HHS, many Governors, and more. . .

As Founder of Artful Askers, he brings 29 years of philanthropic, non-profit, and development expertise with Doers and Donors empowering you with knowledge to engage in the process yourself.

Bob has taught more than 25,000 Doers, nonprofits, churches and has taught more than 2,500 Donors to engage in this same process in giving and/or receiving.

“Artful Askers--Building Relationships with Funders and Resources Workshop”

Do you need new ways to fund your vision?

The “Artful Askers--Building Relationships with Funders and Resources” Workshop provides technical assistance for capacity-building, fund development, and sustainability empowering the building of relationships with foundations, corporations, and funders to access money and other resources following a proven model. The workshop covers: Getting ready to receive, sharing your vision in writing with the right people at the right time, gleaning and leveraging, the power of a thank you note, and the key--following up and following through whether rejected or approved.

Join us for a one-day workshop empowering you to help you help yourself access resources and meet needs. . . Don't pay a consultant—come and learn the knowledge for yourself!

You are invited to a workshop that will equip you to meet community needs. . .

on Friday, May 14 from 9:00 am to 4:00 pm (lunch included)
